FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WCHFH RECIEVES $10,000 GRANT FROM THE UPS FOUNDATION

Washington, NJ—10/12/18—Warren Habitat for Humanity received a ten-thousand-dollar grant from The UPS Foundation, which drives global corporate citizenship and philanthropic programs UPS (NYSE: UPS).

The grant will be used toward plumbing, heating, final grading, and the parking lot to complete the housing project for the Banfield Family.
This grant is indispensable to our organization's mission, of putting God's love into action, and bringing people together to build homes, communities, and hope.

"The generous donation from The UPS Foundation will allow us to create a safe and affordable home for the Banfield family and shows that the community is dedicated to the mission of Warren County Habitat for Humanity," said Ben Eskow Executive Director of Warren county Habitat for Humanity.

Established in 1951 and based in Atlanta Ga., The UPS Foundation identifies specific areas where its backing clearly impacts social issues. In support of this strategic approach, The UPS Foundation has identified the following focus areas for giving: volunteerism, diversity, community safety and the environment.

In 2017, UPS and its employees, active and retired, invested more than $118 million in charitable giving around the world. The UPS Foundation can be found on the web at UPS.com/foundation. To get UPS news direct, visit pressroom.ups.com/RSS.

"The UPS Foundation is honored to support the Warren County Habitat for Humanity's effort to bring people together to build homes, communities, and hope," said Eduardo Martinez, president of The UPS Foundation and chief diversity and inclusion officer at UPS. "Our goal is to fund powerful programs that make a lasting difference to the global community."

"Seeking to put God's love into action, Habitat for Humanity brings people together to build homes, communities and hope."